ANOTHER STOLEN AUTO RECOVERED IN DIXON TODAY

Big Mercer Touring Car Taken From Chicago Sunday is Found Here.

ALLEGED THIEVES HELD

Two Chicago Youths Arrested By Police After Abandoning the Car.

BULLETIN.
Willard Knight, the third member of the crew, was arrested at about 2:30 this afternoon near the Brown Shoe company factory by Sheriff Schoenholz.

A seven-passenger Mercer touring car, valued at about $5,000, stolen from Frank C. Ryan, of 5024 Drexel avenue, Chicago, Sunday, was recovered by the Dixon police today and two young fellows who gave their names as Edward Sullivan, 517 N. Avers avenue, Chicago, and Tom Dempsey, 3848 Lake street, Chicago, each aged 19, believed to have taken the machine, are in the custody of the officers awaiting the arrival of Chicago detectives to take them and the machine back to the city.

Primary credit for the recovery of the car and the apprehension of the two young fellows, both of whom are said by the Chicago Detective Department to have records as automobile thieves, is due to Jacob Dockery, a farmer who resides north of the city.

Boys Asked Ride.

While coming to Dixon early this morning he overtook two young fellows walking toward the city, who asked him for a ride. He accommodated them and on the way into town the boys asked him if he had passed a big grey machine stalled along the road. As he had come from the Lowell Park road he had not passed the car, which had been left on the Woosung road about a mile north of the junction with the Lowell Park highway, and he replied he had not seen it.

Suspicious Aroused.

The boys then told him something had gone wrong with the machine while they were on their way to Polo, and they were coming back to Dixon to get help. But instead of going to any garage they asked Mr. Dockery to take them to College avenue, where they got out of his car at Sixth street. This, and the fact that they walked east on Sixth street toward Dementtown after he had dropped them there aroused his suspicions and he immediately drove to the office of the Chief of Police, where he found Chief Van Bibber and Officer Seagren.

Found Stalled Car.

The officers drove at once to the stalled car, where it was found that it carried 1919 license plates No. 17524, had a broken fan and was out of gasoline. Officer Seagren left with the car and the Chief returned to Dixon, going at once to the depots and notifying the merchants of Dementtown to be on the lookout for the two strangers, descriptions of which had been furnished by Mr. Dockery. In the meantime the automobile had been towed to the Wilson garage in this city.

An hour later the two fellows entered the Smith restaurant in Dementtown, ostensibly to telephone, but neither of them had any money, and it was while they were there deliberating on their future actions that the Chief and Officer Seagren cornered them.

Told Queer Tales.

At the police station, where they gave their names, they told queer tales of having asked to ride in the car by Willard Knight, to whom they said the car belonged; of leaving Chicago Sunday night, arriving here Monday morning; spending the day here and leaving for Polo last night.

When a few files north of town, they said, they ran out of gasoline and Knight came back to Dixon to get some. He did not return, according to the officers.

Representative Meents introduced a bill proposing the exemption from taxation of all bonds and securities issued by the state, including the $60,000,000 road bonds. The measure is said to be prompted by a wish to encourage the sale of the road bonds when they are placed on the market.

Among other bills introduced in the House today were:

Tourtillott—Appropriation of $25,000 for monument to Abraham Lincoln at Dixon to mark the spot where Lincoln had his quarters while a soldier in the Black Hawk war.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The legislation on the new three year naval appropriation was voted in order and a part of the annual naval appropriation bill today by the House which adopted by a vote of 245 to 148 the special rule restoring the provision which was stricken out yesterday on a point of order by Republican leader Mann. 131 Republicans, 14 Democrats, an Independent, a Socialist and a prohibitionist joined in opposing the rule, while 172 Democrats with 32 Republicans and an Independent cast the affirmative ballot.

Representative Campbell, in debate, said the issue involved was why the President, if he is sincere in urging world disarmament, should at the same time urge an American navy second to none.

I. W. W. PRISONERS CURSING AMERICA

Fifty-Four Radicals Taken to Ellis Island By Authorities.

TO BE DEPORTED

By Associated Press Leased Wire.
New York, Feb. 11.—Fifty-four radicals—all born anarchists, I. W. W. and others—arrived at Hoboken today from the west enroute to Ellis Island immigration station from whence they are to be deported.

When all of the 53 men and one woman reached the deck of the immigration boat the police ordered the I. W. W. members to separate from the others and to move to one end. One I. W. W. objected and struck a policeman on the nose with his fist. Other I. W. W.'s closed in and the police came to the rescue of the man attacked and swung their clubs freely and effectively. Many of the prisoners wore flaming red ties. The men were unshaven and shivered from the lack of overcoats. Before the boat left Hoboken for Ellis Island the immigration authorities called on U. S. Army officials for aid. A lieutenant and twenty soldiers boarded the vessel. The radicals were warned by the officer that his men were prepared to shoot to kill if necessary. As the boat left the pier the radicals became noisy.

"Let's give three cheers for the Bolsheviks," one shouted. This was done and the red flag and the I. W. W. were also cheered, and after this demonstration the prisoners chanted "To Hell with America."

ESCAPED LUNATIC IS APPREHENDED IN DIXON

Henry Borneman, Formerly of Freeport, Ran Away From Watertown.

WAS RETAKEN HERE

Henry Borneman, of Freeport, an inmate of the Watertown hospital for the insane, was apprehended in this city late yesterday afternoon after he had escaped from that institution, and he is now being held in the city jail awaiting instructions from the officials of the hospital.

Borneman had been put off the 4-11 east bound passenger train because he could not pay his fare. He wandered down Depot avenue to the Allen barber shop and finding no one there but a boy proceeded to lather himself preparatory to shaving when James Allen entered. Not noticing that the man was demented he told the prospective customer to get into the chair and finished the work. When Borneman refused to pay Mr. Allen realized that he was insane and called the authorities. His identity was established by Chief Van Bibber through letters, written in German, from the man's wife in Freeport. Telephonic communication with the police of that city brought the information that Mrs. Borneman had been notified earlier in the evening that her husband had escaped from the institution, and according to the hospital officers were notified that their patient was in custody here.

The recent general drop in the price of dairy products caused the lowering of the prices.

MILK FACTORY PAYS OVER $118,000 IN JAN.

Supt. Borst Makes Statement Concerning Value of Plant to Community.

DENIES SOME RUMORS

Concerning rumors and reports in the local milk situation Albert Borst, Superintendent of the Dixon factory of the Borden Milk company, today issued the following statement:

A recent statement appeared over my signature in both local papers regarding the attitude of the Borden Condensed Milk company toward its patrons, in which it was clearly set forth that we would continue to receive such milk as our dairymen delivered.

This statement was prompted by information from reliable sources that some of our patrons were being told that unless they contracted to furnish their milk through the Co-Operative Marketing Committee they would be without market for their milk.

We find that this misrepresentation still continues and we again state for the information and guidance of all concerned that we will accept milk delivered by our regular patrons regardless of whether or not they belong to any marketing committee or Producers' association.

Mr. Charles Leake stated to the writer that anyone using these arguments or making such statements does so without any authority whatsoever and without the sanction of the Co-Operative Marketing committee.

We might add in passing that the milk condensing here has contributed to a great extent to the growth and prosperity of this community, having operated continuously every day since it was established in 1887.

For milk delivered to this factory in the month of January we will pay to local dairymen the sum of $96,798.74 and $21,322.51 among the 245 employees of the factory.

When these matters were brought to my attention I took this up with Mr. Charles R. Leake and am making this statement merely to clear the situation and so that our patrons may understand our attitude.

I am sufficiently interested in this to welcome information from our patrons as to any statement made to them to the contrary.

In every community there is a certain class who appear to be indifferent to the success or failure of their industries, and no doubt such a class exists here, but I still believe that more than ninety per cent of the people of this community have the interests of their institutions at heart and realize that the welfare of these institutions and their own welfare are inseparable, that they rise or fall together.

This factory has been established here for more than thirty years and on its success depends, to a great extent, the success of Dixon and adjacent territory.

Palmyra Youth Held to Next Grand Jury

Wardlo Wallace, the 15-year-old son of Tobias Wallace, of Palmyra, was last evening held to the grand jury under bonds of $200 by Justice Gehant on a charge of petit larceny, preferred by Lester Hoyle. Mr. Hoyle missed some skunk furs last week and notified the police, telling them of his suspicions concerning Wallace. According to a trap was set which resulted in the boy's arrest yesterday and his arraignment before the Justice last evening. Wallace signed a written confession to the theft of the furs, which he sold to Sinow & Wienman for $6, the check which that firm gave for them being endorsed with words across the face, "Don't Pay."

Japan Wants Islands.

Paris, Feb. 11.—Japan has reiterated her intention to hold the Marshall and Caroline islands in the Pacific which she took from Germany during the war, as well as insisting upon the execution of her agreement made last September with China regarding Shantung. A formal statement to this effect has been made public by the Japanese representatives here.

As regards the Pacific islands claimed by Japan the American position at the peace conference is unofficially reported as one of opposition to the annexation and insistent upon the internationalization of all the Pacific islands taken from Germany. The Marshall and Caroline islands lie directly east of the Philippines.

Chinese Wanted to Make Secret Treaties Public—Copies Were Stolen.

By Associated Press Leased Wire.
Washington, Feb. 11.—Japan's attitude toward China in the peace conference is causing grave apprehension among the representatives of the other associated powers. According to official diplomatic information reaching here Japan has virtually threatened war if China makes public the secret treaties between the two countries and fails to carry out her agreement to make Japan the successor to Germany in the rights, properties and concessions held by Germany at the outbreak of the European war.

China is reply on the peace conference where her delegates are said to have made an excellent impression, and is seeking support from the United States and Great Britain.

When the Chinese peace delegates arrived in Paris, the information now available discloses they reported that their copies of the secret treaty were stolen from their baggage while passing through Japan, and consequently they were unable to carry out their purpose of making the treaty public at the conference.

Officials of the state department decline to make formal comment on the situation today. The impression was given that the whole matter is being handled in Paris.

According to reports received here the threat against China was conveyed to the Chinese government by the Japanese minister to Peking in thinly veiled terms.

Point to Big Army.

The Japanese minister is said to have pointed out that the Japanese army of more than a million men was idle at home, fully equipped and in condition for a long war and that more than half a million tons of shipping was ready at short notice for active work.

He also is said to have referred pointedly to the large sums owed Japan by China and the fact that China has been unable to live up to her financial agreement.

Made Verbal Reports.

Upon arriving in Paris without the copies of the treaty with which they hoped to break Japan's grip the Chinese delegates made verbal reports of the substance of the treaties to some of the peace delegates of other countries. This led Japan to demand of China that she disavow the actions of her delegates and keep the treaties secret.

Some of the treaties have not yet been ratified by the Chinese government although Japan has ratified them and today's advice are that the Japanese government is pressing China to ratify before anything can be done at Paris.

Japs Bearing Down.

Although so far China has been able to resist Japan's demands, Chinese officials now say that the pressure is becoming unbearable. The Chinese President has approved the action of the Chinese delegates in Paris announcing their willingness to make public the treaties in spite of Japan.

NEXT LOAN WILL BE SIX BILLION FOR SHORT TERM

Glass Asks Authority to Increase Interest Rates.

MORE LOANS PREDICTED

Secretary of Treasury Outlines Plan for Bond Program.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 11.—The Victory Liberty loan to be offered to the American people in April will be for approximately $6,000,000,000 and will consist of short term bonds providing a comparatively high return to the investor.

These prospects were indicated by a letter Secretary of the Treasury Glass addressed tonight to Chairman Kitchin of the house committee on ways and means and the draft of a bill providing for future issues of bonds which accompanied the letter.

More Loans Predicted. With Representative Kitchin and Senator Smoot agreeing that the expenses of the government next year will be $10,000,000,000, whereas the tax revenue will be only $4,000,000,000, it is apparent that the forthcoming loan will not end the war borrowing from the people. While taxes may be increased it is certain that another loan will be necessary during the next fiscal year and possibly others thereafter.

To make the bonds attractive to investors Mr. Glass proposes that he be clothed with authority to increase the interest rate on short term securities, pay premium at maturity, and exempt future and past bonds from taxation.

Proposed Bond Program.

The bill submitted by the secretary of the treasury proposes:

To increase the authorized issue of bonds from $20,000,000,000 to $25,000,000,000.

To remove the limitation as to interest rate so far as regards bonds maturing not more than ten years from the date of issue.

To authorize the issue of not to exceed $10,000,000,000 of interest bearing, noncirculating notes having maturities from one to five years.

To authorize the issue of bonds and notes payable at a premium.

To exempt war savings certificates from income taxes.

To confer authority upon the secretary of the treasury to determine the exemption from taxation in respect to future issues of bonds and notes and to enlarge the exemptions of existing Liberty bonds in the hands of subscribers for new bonds and notes.

Tax Exemption Clause. To exempt from income surtaxes and profits taxes, all issues of Liberty bonds, and bonds of the war finance corporation held abroad.

To extend the period for conversion of 4 per cent Liberty bonds.

To create a 2½ per cent cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of the war debt.

To continue the existing authority for the purchases of obligations of foreign governments after the termination of the war.

To extend the authority of the war finance corporation so as to permit it to make loans in aid of our commerce, thus supplementing the aid which may be given by the treasury on direct loans to foreign governments and in a measure relieving the treasury of demands for such loans.

The blaze, which is believed to have started from a spark from the chimney, had gained great headway before the firemen were summoned and as a result the fire was extremely difficult to fight.

LINCOLN-ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL SERVICES

Especially Inspiring Service Held at Methodist Church Sunday Night.

CO. F WAS PRESENT

Two services of interest were held at the Methodist church Sunday. In the morning Rev. J. M. Phelps gave a helpful centenary message. In the evening a great crowd filled the gallery and the auditorium. The choir, under the leadership of Miss Bennett, gave an excellent number and all enjoyed the exceptional music given by the Sunday school orchestra under direction of W. H. Smith. Miss Bennett also pleased with a solo.

Company F attended the evening service in uniform. Rev. Lumaden spoke on the characteristics of Lincoln and Roosevelt, his subject being, "The Great Who Never Die." He said the very lives of our great and good remain to inspire long after their bodies have mouldered into dust. How glad we are, he said, that he can say such names as Washington, Lincoln, Adams, Warren, Beecher, Brooks, Jonathan Edwards and Roosevelt. They sowed the seeds of mighty movements that yielded gracious harvest. They have left us a legacy rich and worthwhile. Why did our people bend to the task in this world war, as they did? They had something to keep. Was it gold, or land? No. It was a soul—an American soul.

Lincoln and Roosevelt had these characteristics:

1.—They were saturated with the Bible. Mr. Roosevelt said: "No man can figure what it would mean to our national social life if those teachings were removed. Mr. Lincoln mastered the word.

2.—They saw the root of achievement in character and not in ability alone. Mr. Roosevelt said: "We must never, never dilly smartness." We must have no success that comes by sacrificing fundamentals.

3.—They believed in hard work. Both men were energetic and worked hard and we're proud of our rail splitter.

4.—They wanted America. American. One country, one God, one faith, one language and one flag. No red flag of anarchy should be tolerated. "To often we are too tolerant."

5.—These men had a delightful and necessary faith in themselves. There was no bringing before men. Lincoln feared praise more than criticism. He was brave, Roosevelt made mistakes, but he was always right at heart. He loved America and was willing to sacrifice for his country.

The Roosevelts have been in this country since 1644. They have been splendid citizens. This evening, said Mr. Lumaden, we think of Theodore Roosevelt as a scholar, soldier, Christian gentleman, fine democrat, statesman, a genuine patriot, an able man who was not covetous, and one who was full of truth and who feared God.

"SOMEWHERE IN WASHINGTON"

John H. Byers, Secretary to Congressman John C. McKenzie, and Himself a Member of the Evening Telegraph's Staff, Writes of Activities With Nation's Law-Makers

February 8.—Snow fell in the Capital City, but by noon not one flake was left. For a while this morning it looked much like real winter and the small boy was out with his sled.

I had an occasion to go to the capitol this afternoon and on my way back to the office through the subway my companion was a page from the House.

"Well, my boy, were you out with the sled this morning?"

"No, sir."

"Well," I replied, "when I was a boy and there was snow on the ground I was out early with my sled."

"Yes, I guess you were," replied the youngster, "but there was much snow then, but here it only lasts an hour or so and then it is all over. I would love to go and slide if just for an hour. Say, Mister, I wish I lived where there was snow four months in the year," said the lad.

I wish that boy could live in Illinois just one winter. He would have a good time. But winters in Washington don't amount to very much in the mind of the boy.

Well, anyway the ground hog saw his shadow and we had, at least, a taste of winter. But this afternoon I went for several blocks without my overcoat. The day was a beautiful one.

I enjoyed a visit of two days with Dr. W. H. Perry, a captain in the Medical Corps of the army. The captain's home is in Sterling. Years ago Doctor Perry taught the Prairieville school and several members of my family were his pupils. I remember the doctor right well then, but years have changed so many things. The captain was on his way to New York to enter a school, or medical institute there for special training. When his course is completed he will return to Camp Riley, Kan., where he is stationed.

I showed the captain all the show places here, and among them was the Washington monument. Yes, we went to the top of the monument. Another time for me. We rode in the elevator. The captain did not care to walk up 500 feet. I was very much pleased that he had such good judgment.

Two ladies from the district called at the office the other day. Miss Bittorf of Sterling and Miss Plein of Dixon—"Kagle's" daughter. Both of the young ladies are well and happy. I fixed them up with a letter so that they could pass through the executive offices at the White House. They told me that they were going to quit this work here and return home. Of course, they may change their minds. Washington life, especially to the war workers, is quite attractive and they dislike to give it up.

I had a pleasant visit with Dr. George Lyman in the office the other morning. As you know, the doctor is the son-in-law of Warren Badger. He holds a splendid position in the Department of Agriculture and his mission was to explain his work to the congressman. While the doctor was with us a lady nearly eighty very materially. Every Republican in the Illinois delegation will support Mann.

About six o'clock this evening the House passed the revenue bill as it came from conference. The entire afternoon was taken up debating the bill. Now it goes to the Senate and that body will act upon it very soon. The bill carries $6,000,000,000, or rather provides for that amount of money to run the country with for a year or such a matter. Down here we don't figure in millions any more. We deal with billions. What would some of the old members think, if they were permitted to visit the House again. One remembers the days of Tom Reed, when it was said that we had a "million dollar congress," and Reed replied, "Well, we are a million dollar country."

Some wonder about the special session. Well, I am unable to say what will happen after March 4th. Some members think, and I have heard quite a few express themselves, that it will be hard to avoid an extra session.

Now, if this congress will speed up there will be no need of a special session. The whole trouble is with the Senate. Senators don't care if they return to their homes or not, in fact the Senators would rather remain here. They have homes here and this is where they prefer to live. The Senate is moving rather slowly, but on a pinch even the Senate can speed up. Let us hope they will do it.

Mrs. L. E. Edwards is recovering from laryngitis, which caused the total loss of her voice for several days. She has also been suffering from a badly scalded hand, which is also on the mend.

Supreme War Council Decides on Disciplinary Measures.

CONDITIONS HARSHER

Paris, Feb. 11.—The Princes islands conference with the Russians may not be held, owing to the fact the bolsheviks regard the meeting as a conference with the allies instead of merely an opportunity of exchanging views and agreeing on the principles for further discussions. Foreign Minister Pichon today indicated the proposition was off owing to the noncessation of hostilities among the bolsheviks. The American mission, consisting of William Allen White and Prof. Herron, has not yet departed.

Fix German Punishment. Paris, Feb. 11.—The supreme war council is reported to have reached a decision at yesterday's meeting that it was necessary to impose more severe conditions upon Germany for the renewal of the armistice, because of Germany's attitude toward the fulfillment of her obligations.

Decisions are also said to have been reached for the control of German demobilization and of the production of plants formerly engaged in producing war material.

It is expected that the means for securing the execution of the conditions laid down will be reached at the session of the council.

REPUBLICANS CHARGE DEMOCRATIC BLUFF

MANN BLOCKS DEMOCRATIC SCHEME TO AUTHORIZE PHANTOM SHIPS.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—The Republicans squarely challenged the Democrats in the house today to appropriate the required $210,000,000 for the construction of the "biggest navy in the world, if that plan is not entirely a bluff in the interest of President Wilson's peace diplomacy.

The Democrats declined to vote for an appropriation. They sought to get through a blanket paragraph authorizing the president to construct the big navy without any appropriation. Minority Leader Mann halted this on a point of order, which was sustained.

The avoid making any appropriation and to put the provision through as a simple authorization the Democrats hastily adjourned the house and will seek a special rule for its consideration tomorrow.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

FROM HOWARD METZLER.

Nov. 24, 1918.

Dear Dad: As this is supposed to be Father's day I will drop you a few lines telling you something of what I have seen since leaving the States. We left New York on the 20th of May and after zigzagging around the Atlantic for eleven days we landed at Liverpool, England. Were marched about four miles out of the city and spent the night, leaving the next day for Winchester where we stayed for five days before taking a boat at Southampton for France. We spent the night on board a cattle boat and debarked for Havre on June 14. Here we went into another rest camp for a couple of days and then they loaded us into box cars and we headed for Valdaun. After we spent three days in traveling we unloaded and were marched to the little village of Epenoy, a small village about the size of Eldena along the Swiss border. Here we were trained on the French guns and incidentally here it was that truck drivers were called for to go to Bordeaux for trucks for the brigade. I was sent in charge of the detail and it certainly was an interesting trip driving all the way across France and I was lucky enough to get the General's car, a big eight cylinder Cadillac, to drive back instead of a truck. About the twenty-sixth of July we moved into barracks at Valdaun and after firing our range course were prepared for the front. Five thousand rounds were fired over the range here and my job was to see that it was on the grounds in time, and, believe me, the old trucks worked as late as ten o'clock at night, getting ready for the next day's firing. On the 23rd of August we left for the front and as usual I had the truck train to take overland, a distance of 220 miles. We found the regiment at Bourcq, a small village in a forest in the St. Mihiel sector. Here is where the real work for the trucks came in for we had to haul our supplies a distance of seven miles and there was rain ten days out of nine and mud half way up to your knees. There were more nights that I was on the truck seats than there were when I was in bed, for my drivers wouldn't suit the captain for he always wanted to go like hell and the boys were afraid of the quads so whenever he went I had to go and he sure was a soldier for whenever anything was wanted, it didn't make any difference what time of night it was, we always went after it. After the drive here was over we left for the Verdun front. Here I had to drive behind the wagon train for we had lost a bunch of horses and it was quite often I had to push a wagon out of a hole. Also the Spanish Influenza hit our outfit and all of my men I turned over to the Supply Company, except the sick and these I kept in the trucks, for they were too weak to walk and there were only a couple who went to hospitals that came back. From the time we left the Bourcq woods at seven o'clock one night until three o'clock of the second morning I was at the truck wheel only leaving it long to help out some of the fellows and get some hot coffee that was always ready for us in the field kitchen. When we stopped I and a pal of mine from Walnut took our blankets and flopped in a French graveyard and were awakened the following day at ten o'clock by the following speech from a captain of the quartermaster's corps: "No wonder you can't beat these Yanks when they have guts enough to sleep in a graveyard."

After reaching our camping place in the Argonne I had to haul supplies from the main warehouse a distance of one hundred and ninety miles so you see it wasn't such a snap after all. When we weren't hauling supplies we were hauling ammunition and I sure saw some funny sights then. One day a shell struck the truck right ahead of mine and took the engine out of it without exploding. If it had there would have been some damage done for there were about fifty trucks lined up loaded with high explosive shells. Here was the only place we saw much real fighting, and, believe me, it was real, for we were located at a cross roads and Jerry had our range. Here also we witnessed several air battles and, believe me, those Jerrys have the goods when it comes to aeroplanes. Around the middle of October we were relieved and sent back for a rest when the order came to motorize our regiment. We left there about the 25th of October and as the old trucks had from 11 to 13,000 miles registered upon them we turned them in for salvage and got new ones in their place. About two weeks ago I took a bunch of lads to Dijon and drove back thirty trucks, five touring cars and ten motorcycles, and, with the exception of five or six cars we stole, or as the army calls it, "salvaged," while at the front, this is all we have.

We are no stationed to Doullaincourt and orders, or rather rumors, came in today that we were to be occupation troops and move into Germany for six months. I certainly hope it is only a rumor for the States are good enough for me. We wired our shack here and have electricity whenever it is on but they turn off the current so often you never can gamble on lights. They were turned off about five minutes ago and I have to finish with a candle, so will cut it short and hope I am on the way home by the time you are reading this. Hoping this reaches you in as good health as it leaves me I am, As ever, HOWARD.

F. H. Messer, from his son, Lisle R.

Dear Father: I am in gay Paris and believe me, she is gay, as Wilson has arrived O. K. Saw his smiling face twice in a parade each time. I talk French like a fish. Hope to hear from you soon but as the organization I am in is continually moving I doubt much if I will ever get a letter.

I mailed you a souvenir, a German helmet, which I hope you received O. K. It is a helmet found near Mt. Sec. Was taken from a dugout and was left behind in his hurry to get out of the American's fire or the owner was killed. It is not a very fine one but half of the helmets in America are frauds. The boys are bringing back helmets from Metz that never saw a battle. Have merely been made to sell to Americans. Mt. Sec. is a hill that cost the allies 70,000 men to capture. We were stationed there some time. It was taken in the St. Mihiel drive.

I do hope I am with you soon and hope you are well. Write me same address. I am in Paris now and surely do enjoy myself but give me the U. S. A. The Parisians are a different class of people than elsewhere in France and are almost cosmopolitan.

You can believe all the accounts of their celebrating Wilson. Today is the third day of it and the men on dray wagons are going along hitting their horses and hollering "Vive Wilson." The Rue de Rivoli is as wide as Michigan Avenue and for a mile around De Opera and Madeline you never saw such crowds and happy and care free, appearing so after so many years of war. And the Americans are the cause of it all; they are the heroes. I wish all the boys in France could be in Paris and see the gratitude of the real French.

Well, I may miss something so will finish. I am your son, LISLE R. Love to all.

WHY FRENCH GIRLS ARE STEALING THE YANKEE BOY'S HEART

Newspaper Says 40 Per Cent of Parisian Maidens Prefer Americans.

BUT THEY EAT MUCH

By Associated Press

Paris, Feb. 9.—(Delayed)—To get an American husband seems to be the ideal of more than forty per cent of Parisian young women. At all events such is the belief of a Paris newspaper which publishes a series of letters from the fair sex, giving the writers' reasons for preferring Americans over their compatriots.

Those who would rather marry French men base their predilection largely on patriotic grounds. But a large per cent of French girls wholeheartedly express admiration of the average American's breezy good humor and his courtesy to the fair sex. Some fair writers state that French lovers are given too much to talking over things and are too fussy about their personal appearance. One girl, however, raises the objection that the Americans eat too much.

How to get the most out of a FORDSON TRACTOR

When you hire a man, the amount of work he does largely depends upon how well you plan his work.

Leave him alone and he probably will do considerable loafing.

The same thing is true of a tractor.

The farmers who are making the biggest profits on these tractors, are the farmers who keep them busy the largest percentage of the time.

By intelligent planning you can keep your tractor busy every working day of the year—sawing wood and baling hay in the winter time, field work in the spring, mowing and reaping in the summer, plowing and silo filling in the fall, grinding feed and pumping water all the year round—helping out the neighbors both in field work and in belt work.

Don't overlook the possibilities of using the belt pulley.

Remember that the tractor was evolved from the old fashioned, steam traction engine, the main purpose of which was to provide belt power.

Keep your tractor's belt pulley busy when it is not working in the field. The Fordson is a willing worker, a tireless worker and the most profitable worker you ever had—if you plan its work properly.

We will help you plan the work

The Promoter's Wife

By JANE PHELPS

ONE OF NEIL'S DEALS GOES THROUGH.

"Tip-hip-hurrah!"
Neil it was whose voice had rung out in the cheer. I was waiting dinner for him, but had not heard him come in.

"What's it all about?" He had grabbed me around my waist and was whirling me about the room for all the world like a mad Dervish.

"It's over! The deal went through today. My, but your husband's some money maker! Say you're proud of me, Bab! Say it quick or I'll go and find someone who will." Anxious as always for praise.

"Of course I am proud of you, you dear boy. I'm always proud of you. Come, you shall tell me all about it while we have dinner."

Neil was very gay all through dinner, yet he really told me nothing. Again and again he reiterated that the "deal had gone through" and more than once I had to tell him that I was proud of him.

"We'll go and look at those apartments I told you of, on Sunday, or would you rather have a house?" he asked.

"Oh, let us have the apartment. A house isn't half so pretty nor so easy to manage. But Neil, why not stay here until our year is up? We'll have to pay unless we find someone to take it."

"Stay here! Well, I guess not! We'll get out of this joint just about as fast as we can, then we'll show them a few things." ("Them" being his friends of course.)

He was so boyishly happy, I said no more. Yet I dreaded the thought of change. The apartment, while not large, was comfortable and was almost luxurious in its furnishings. With the two servants I had little real care, and we had been happy there—in our first home.

After Neil's first ebullition of joy had somewhat subsided, as we were sitting in the library, sipping our coffee, I tried again to question him.

"Never mind the details, Bab. The thing is done. You couldn't understand if I tried to tell you."
"Lorraine said today that if she married she would want to know all number, was received with applause. During the afternoon many members expressed their appreciation for flowers, fruit and kind letters received during the illness of members of their families. The serious illness of members of the A. J. Myers and William Weisz families was reported. Two new members were accepted by ballot.

Comrades of the G. A. R. post are urged to attend the regular meetings, held the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The ladies who attended the services at St. Paul's Lutheran church Sunday evening, reported an excellent service, with an especially appropriate sermon by Dr. Altman as a Theodore Roosevelt memorial and beautiful music.

An appropriate program will be given at the hall on the evening of February 22nd, honoring the birth anniversaries of Washington, Lincoln and McKinley, whose birthdays occur in this month. To this the public is invited.

Two handsomely pieced quilts to be sold for the benefit of the corps, were presented to the corps by Mesdames Halstead and Hauser.

A poem, composed by Private Ray Gardner, now in France, before the armistice was signed, and sent to his mother recently, was read and appreciated. It is given below:

Before It Is Too Late.

If you have a gray-haired mother
In your old home far away,
Do sit down and write that letter
You've put off from day to day.
Please don't wait until her tired steps
Have reached "Heaven's Pearly Gate."

Prove you fondly think of her,
Before it is too late.

If you have a tender message,
Or a loving word to say,
Do not wait till you forget it,
Whisper it to her right away.

Who can tell what bitter memories
May haunt you if you wait.
Try to make your mother happy
Before it is too late.

Soldier boys, live in the present—
Our future is unknown;
Tomorrow is a mystery,
Today is all our own.
The chances future leads us to,
May vanish while you wait,
Then send life's richest treasure,
Before it is too late.

The tender words unspoken,
The letter never sent,
The long forgotten message,
The wealth of love unspent.
For these some heart is breaking,
For these some loved ones wait;
So show them that you love them,
Before it is too late.

FROM ROCK ISLAND—

August Owen, employed in the Rock Island Arsenal, spent Sunday at his home here.

GUEST FROM CHICAGO—

Miss Alice Baxter, of Chicago, was the Sunday guest of Miss Louise Woodworth.

CHICKEN PIE DINNER—

The War Mothers' Council have planned a most sumptuous chicken pie dinner to be held Saturday, Feb. 15th, at the Elks' club house. All soldiers and sailors, whether now in service or not, are invited as guests and will be given their dinner free. Otherwise, the public pays.

M. E. HOME MISSIONARY—
Mrs. W. D. Baum, 613 Hennepin avenue, will entertain the members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Mulinix, of Polo, were among the out-of-town guests at the Travelers from the East dancing party of last evening.

GAVE ENJOYABLE PARTY—
The Travelers from the East gave a very delightful informal dancing party at Rosbrook hall last night, with one hundred fifty couple appearing on the floor during the evening.

The Selig orchestra from LaSalle furnished a very enjoyable program of the latest dance music. The flags of the allies, with American flags in predominance, were used in the hall decorations. Frappe was served the guests. Polo, Sterling, Ashton and Franklin Grove furnished a number of the guests.

FOR MISS DOWNEY—
Mrs. P. J. McIntyre and Mrs. Paul Pettit entertained at the home of the latter last evening with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Esther Downey, to be a bride of this month.

The guests numbered twenty-seven. Miss Downey received many beautiful gifts in hand-painted china, aluminum and silverware. Five Hundred and music were the pastimes indulged in by the guests and light refreshments were served.

VALENTINE PARTY—
A committee from the Stjernan club entertained the members very delightfully at a Valentine party, given last evening at the home of Miss Nellie Allwood. Hearts of every size and description decorated the rooms used in entertaining, and the table, from which an attractive luncheon all in red and white was served, was done in the Valentine colors, also, with red carnations arranged tastefully in the center and Kewpies, attired in red ribbons, besprikled over its service. Valentine games amused the guests preceding the luncheon.

TO VISIT IN PEORIA—
Mrs. E. J. Rosbrook will go to Peoria Thursday to visit her mother, Mrs. Wilcox, and sister, Mrs. L. M. Wheeler. Mr. Rosbrook will join his wife there Saturday and they will return to Dixon Sunday.

AT MRS. HESS HOME—
John Kilday, of Clay City, was a guest Sunday at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. R. Hess.

CARE OF THE COMPLEXION—
—OTHER BEAUTY SECRETS
By Madame Marce

The soft, velvety complexion is the envy of every woman—and any woman can revel in one to her heart's desire if she will only discard powders and paints and give her complexion a little care. The most beautiful peach-like complexion I ever saw was that of a southern lady, and she told me this is the way she got it and kept it: Every night before retiring, she washed her face, neck and arms with plenty of soap and warm water, then used cold water and dried thoroughly with a coarse towel; then she massaged into the skin a cream lotion that she made herself by dissolving one ounce of zintone in a pint of hot water, adding a tablespoonful of glycerine. Get the zintone for fifty cents at any drug store.

Nothing mars a good complexion like hideous blackheads, and if women only knew how easy it is to get rid of them, there would be very few faces with these blemishes on them. If you are one of the unfortunates, just get about two ounces of nioxin from your druggist for fifty cents, sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge, rub briskly over the blackheads and wash off. You will find that every one has been dissolved away entirely.

A nice complexion and dull, lifeless, thin, scraggly hair do not hitch, so if you have any of these hair troubles and you don't want them to detract from your complexion, you would do well to give your head some attention. No better hair treatment is possible than to use a simple quinine hair tonic that you can make by mixing half a pint of bay rum, half a pint of water and adding one ounce of beta-quinol, which costs fifty cents at the drug store.

WILL SIGN SOME BILLS

Paris, Feb. 11.—Evidence of President Wilson's intention not to abandon the peace conference upon the ratification of the society of nations plans is found in the disclosure today that he plans to return from Washington to Paris by March 15th. This involves so brief a stay in Washington to permit only the signing of bills during the closing hours of congress.

It is understood that President Wilson intends to give his personal attention in Paris to the work of the supreme executive council which promises to be the most important feature of the conference after the disposal of the society of nations.

Call Strike of 250,000.

New York, Feb. 11.—Union heads of basic building construction trades today called a general strike which, beginning tomorrow, will effect all contracts throughout the country held by members of the Building Trades Employers' association, according to announcement here tonight by William J. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Mr. Hutcheson said that the strike order effected masons, plasterers, bricklayers, hoisting engineers, elevator constructors, soft stone cutters, tile layers, marble setters, and carpenters.

The walkout of these workmen, he added, will automatically throw out of work all other workmen employed on operations of members of the employers' association.

The number of men affected by the order, he said, is about 250,000, or one-fourth of all union building trades workmen in the country. Sympathetic strikes, he predicted, will ultimately bring the number of strikers to 300,000.

SOCIETY

HERWIG—LEAR—
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Daehler, 318 Third street, on Sunday evening took place the wedding of Miss Blanche Lear, of Chicago, an intimate friend of Mrs. Daehler, and Harry Herwig, of Franklin Grove. The service was read by the Rev. Mr. Kuethe, of Cullom, Ill., a former pastor of the Lutheran church in Amboy, where Miss Lear resided until two or three years ago.

The bride was attractively gowned in white Georgette. A long tulle veil, caught by orange blossoms, was worn. Her flowers were Killarney roses.

Just preceding the ceremony, Mrs. George Mathias played the wedding march from Tannhauser.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor in front of the fireplace, which was banked in palms and ferns. Other decorations were in pink and white.

A four-course wedding dinner followed the ceremony. Smilax was wound about the chandelier, from which pink and white satin ribbons were stretched to the corners of the table, the center of which was a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white narcissus. Mrs. Cyrus Hedley catered.

The guests included the bride's mother, Mrs. W. M. Thomas, of Amboy; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Herwig and son, Wesley, of Franklin Grove; the groom's parents and brother; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Shaeffer, of Aurora, Ill.; Mrs. W. S. Lyons, of Polo; and Rev. Mr. Kuethe, of Cullom, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. George Mathias and Mrs. Wm. Dautler, of this city, were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Herwig left the next morning for points in the East. The bride wore an attractive suit of Burgundy color, with hat to match. They will make their home upon the farm of the groom's father, four miles from Franklin Grove after March 1.

KING OPENS
PARLIAMENT

London, Feb. 11.—King George, in opening the new Parliament today, urged quick and decisive decision on reconstruction measures and asked particularly that parliament "spare no effort to heal the causes of the existing unrest." He stated that a government bill will be presented simplifying the procedure of the House of Commons so that the lower body might expedite what the government considers imperative measures.

Among the measures, King George said, will be bills for better housing, the formation of a department of health, the fulfillment of the pledge to labor that unfair competition will be prevented and for the betterment of the agricultural system through improved transportation.

ROBBERS MURDER
MAN AT TABLE

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Frank Tahick, an Austrian, was killed last night by holdup men, who walked into a rear third floor flat at 260 West Twenty-third place. Tahick was eating lunch and drinking beer with three cousins in the flat when four men pushed through the back door. The foremost man pointed two revolvers at the men at the table.

"Throw up your hands," he ordered.

All except Tahick obeyed. He turned to run toward his own apartment in the front of the same address. Two bullets from the intruders' revolvers struck him in the back and Tahick swerved about, facing the holdup men. A third shot struck him in the neck and he fell. Tahick crawled to the kitchen of his own home to which his wife and five children rushed, when they heard the shooting.

Police Get Description.
The four holdup men then ran from the place and Tahick was hurried to the People's hospital, where he died a few minutes later. His companions gave a description of the gang to the Deering street police, but no arrests had been made late last night.

The crime took place in the doctor's private office, while four persons were in an adjoining room. No quarrel was heard.

The slayer quietly walked through the waiting room and ran down the stairway as he escaped. Although the doctor had treated him several times, no record kept of him was in the office.

Wasters of Good Food

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 11.—Destruction of food to cause a shortage and boost market value would constitute a misdemeanor under the provisions of a bill introduced in the Illinois house by Representative Charles S. Stubbs of Peoria and referred to the committee on judiciary.

The measure fixes penalties for destroying or wasting food fit for human consumption to the value of $50 or more.

AMUSEMENTS

DIXON OPERA HOUSE.

The opera house management wishes to announce that there are plenty of good seats still left for the engagement of "Hearts of the World," which will be presented here Wednesday and Thursday, matinees and nights. This is the first showing of this wonderful picture in this vicinity and the indications are that capacity houses will be the rule as the calls from out of town patrons has been very liberal. This picture is said by many to be Griffith's masterpiece and better than "The Birth of a Nation." It is more than a picture play; it goes straight to the heart and it is this human quality that makes it as big as mankind. It contains the sweetest love story ever told.

ANOTHER STOLEN CAR

IS RECOVERED HERE

According to their story, and they came to Dixon and encountered him on College avenue last night, when he told them, according to their story, that he was not going to get any gasoline until this morning.

They said they then returned to the car, slept there overnight and when their companion failed to show up this morning they again came to Dixon to look for him. It was while they were "looking" for him that they were arrested.

All Have Records.

Telephonic communication with the Chicago Detective Department this morning brought the information that the Mercer car, Illinois license 17524, motor number 25113 and serial number 2797, had been stolen from Frank C. Ryan as given above, Sunday night and that Sullivan and Dempsey were wanted as automobile thieves and also that Willard Knight is known for his auto-stealing record.

The local authorities, however, are convinced that their story of Knight having been with them here is a "frame," as they were seen around town yesterday and no third party was in their company at any time.

Wore Army Uniform.

Young Sullivan may also find himself in trouble with the federal authorities, as he wore over his civilian clothes an ordinary cay, a United States Army uniform from which the service buttons had not been removed.

When asked where he had gotten the uniform he first said that his uniform had been issued to him after which he was told he need not report for duty—an impossible circumstance. Later he said the coat had belonged to his brother, who was recently discharged, but he could not tell what unit his brother served in or what camp he had been stationed in.

Marriage permits have been issued to Wallace W. Wagner and Miss Ruth L. Schoenholz, both of Scarborough; George Walter Sandrock and Miss Freda Elizabeth Schaneberg, both of Ashton; and George H. Albrecht of Bradford and Miss Emma B. Reitz of Ashton.

ASSERTS RHEUMATIC

IMPURITIES CAN'T

STAY IN BODY

When My Prescription Goes in, Rheumatism Goes Out Along with all Poisonous Uric Acid, Says Discoverer James H. Allen.

Because he was crippled with terrible rheumatism and unable to work, and because doctors failed to help him, Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester decided to help himself.

Persistent study, ceaseless patience and frequent experiments convinced him that before anyone could be free from rheumatism the poisons and impurities often called uric acid deposits, must be dissolved in the joints, ligaments and muscles and expelled from the system.

It took some years to get this idea into the form of a prescription, but perseverance finally conquered and in a very short period every pain and twinge and trace of rheumatism was forced to flee and Mr. Allen turned himself from a rheumatic wreck into a strong, healthy, robust man.

So pleased was he with his success that he named this wonderful medicine Allenrhu. Many others cursed with the agony of rheumatism tried it with results that were almost magical.

Requests for Allenrhu became so numerous that a decision was reached to let sufferers know of the discovery through the newspapers and now druggists throughout the country dispense Allenrhu prescription, or can get it for you on short notice.

four principles, says the guide book, "is to encourage people to think before they spend." It adds: "The thoughtful spender gets more for his wages and therefore really gets more for his work than does the thoughtless purchaser."

Here are some of the mottoes suggested for thrift promotion:

"Debts are the poorest spectacles through which to read advertising columns."

"Look before or you will find yourself behind." Benjamin Franklin.

"Intelligent savings looks to future wise spending and is, therefore, postponed enjoyment."

"Money is oil-like; war savings stamps sand will hold on to it."

"Real merchandising service assists the customer to get what he really needs."

"Owners of war savings stamps have a definite stake in their nation, which makes for practical citizenship."

"Which is the better citizen? The thrifter or the drifter?"

BROADER FIELD FOR THRIFT CAMPAIGNS

W. S. S. Organization Will Increase Scope of Their New Propaganda.

HAND BOOK ISSUED

Washington, Feb. 11.—A broader field for thrift propaganda this year than the mere selling of stamps has been chosen by the national War Savings Organization, and its district and state branches. Thousands of workers are instructed, it was announced today, to preach practical reasons for intelligent saving, wise spending, avoidance of waste and safe investment.

To this end, activities of the war savings organization will include publication of circulars teaching thrift, organization of war savings societies, establishment of courses of thrift study in schools and colleges, co-operation with libraries in encouraging reading of thrift material, and with industries to promote saving among employees.

Practical thrift, says a guide book issued for war savings workers, consists in these four practices:

"First, wise spending, preceded by thought to make certain that the purchaser gets his money's worth in commodity, comfort, service, recreation or advancement." It implies the balancing of all needs, present and future, and of means of meeting those needs, and then spending in such a way as to meet the most urgent needs.

"Second, intelligent saving, which consists largely of foregoing ill-considered or foolish present expenditures in order to be able to secure in the future either necessities or even more substantial luxuries. Such saving is the opposite of miserliness."

"Third, safe investment. With war saving stamps an absolutely solid and attractive investment and also the most effective mechanism for saving small sums regularly, stress naturally will be placed upon investment and other government securities."

"Fourth, avoidance of waste, which is as important to the nation in peace as in war."

The first step to inculcate these

Critics United in Praise for Harpist

Too much cannot be said of the coming of Salvi, the great Italian harpist, who appears here in concert tomorrow evening. Remo Cortesi, critic of the Des Moines Register and Leader, says, "I have never heard a harpist who comes near the height attained by Salvi. His performance was the most remarkable demonstration of the possibilities of this instrument ever given in Des Moines. He achieved a splendid and well-deserved success, receiving many encores."

Dixon citizens have guaranteed a goodly sum to secure Salvi in this concert and a generous response is anticipated. All who can should hear the "Wizard" of the harp. This concert is not for the benefit of any society or church, but just for the privilege of hearing the great Salvi.

It is to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Lutheran church.

FORMER SECRETARY IS NOW IN ENGLISH CAMP

Sec. Der Kinderin Writes to E. B. Raymond of His Army "Y." Work.

E. B. Raymond has received the following interesting letter from J. Der Kinderin, former secretary of the Dixon Y. M. C. A., which will be of interest to that young man's many friends here. Mr. Der Kinderin is now engaged in army Y.M.C.A. work and is located at Ramsay, England, where he wrote the letter, Jan. 5:

Dear Mr. Raymond: I am making an effort this New Year to get caught up a little with my correspondence. I am so hopelessly in arrears that it is a considerable undertaking, but here goes for a start. This is my fifth letter today so I am making some progress. Somehow it is hard to write letters—such a little privacy and then so much going on, all these things combine to make letters pretty hard to get off.

I want to thank you for the letters you have written and for the Christmas Greetings from yourself and Mrs. Raymond. I was interested in what you wrote about Y. M. C. A. matters and the spirit of the Lee County folks on all sorts of war work. I am proud of you all and glad I have known you so well. You may be certain that the first place I make for when I have seen my own people will be Dixon. Really, Mr. Raymond, all things considered I think the time I spent at Dixon was about the most enjoyable I ever had. Such fine friends and loyal co-operation, make it an experience I will never forget. I will be glad when I can come back to it all and see you once again. I'd like to spend a solid week in the volley ball games and then another on golf course.

I am still in England and expect to stay here a month or more. Of course we are not building any more but end of war caught us with 20 huts to build and a lot of lumber and such stuff on hand. That is being collected and must be sold. In addition our lorries and our men have had to bring in equipment and tents from all the surrounding camps in this vicinity. We have had about a dozen 30x90 tents and as many more smaller or larger ones to collect. The worst part of this task is caused by constant rains which prevent us from taking the tents down while they are dry. For the past two months not a single tent has been thoroughly dried out so we watch our chance and when they are fairly dry to get them down, then into our hut and hang up the
